

POLITICAL ECONOMY

Bachelor of Business Administration

H-E-B School of Business & Administration

Program Overview

The Political Economy Concentration develops theoretical and empirical understanding of the connections between economics and politics. Students majoring in Government gain an appreciation of the role of economic forces in politics. Economics majors learn how politics influence economic behavior.

Career Opportunities

Students choosing a concentration in Political Economy will be especially well prepared for graduate study in economics, government, or business, and for both academic and nonacademic careers in policy analysis, business administration, law, government relations, and other fields.

Faculty

Dr. Scott Dittloff, Professor (Ph.D., Texas A&M University): Caribbean Politics, Comparative Politics, International Relations, Literature & Politics, Politics & Culture, and Human Rights.
