Alumni Recruiter All Star 100

Anais Biera, BA '04
Political Science
Minor in Speech

We honor Ms. Biera for her invaluable contributions to UIW students and alumni. Her idea generation, community and business connections, and creative drive fueled the initiation of the first ever

Office of Career Services
"Careers in Non-Profit" Panel.
Ms. Biera recently joined the Public Relations team at Bromley Communications, LLC and is a Partner with Gallegos & Associates Consulting Firm. Her community involvement is extensive, and she continues to provide unprecedented opportunities and a shining example for UIW students and alumni.

SACUCCA Consortium 400

Comprised of 14 area colleges' and universities' career services offices, the San Antonio Colleges and Universities Career Centers Association (SACUCCA) strives to provide opportunities for connections between employers and alumni/student job seekers.

For both employers seeking highly qualified candidates and alumni/students seeking jobs/internships, SACUCCA maintains a website with helpful resources and hosts an annual Job Fair the 3rd Thursday in November.

Additionally, employers who wish to host a SACUCCA site visit are also encouraged to contact the organization.
