

INCARNATE WORD DAY celebrates the Feast of the Annunciation, Mary's "Yes" to God's call. When Mary accepted God's offer, the Word (God the Son) became one of us, became "incarnate," with a body like ours, hence, the name Incarnate Word.

9:00 a.m. Panel will feature faculty and students (Tere Dresner and Brandi Cross; S. Martha Ann and group who took service trip to Juarez) who offered service to women and children in Zambia, Tanzania and Mexico.

Noon. The Annual Golf Cart Parade will be the main feature of the Cardinal Carnival. Students decorate golf carts using UIW Mission themes. The Mardi Gras King and Queen will also be featured.

1:30 p.m. Panel will feature faculty and students who apply principles of Catholic Social Justice in their courses (Lou Arbour, Theresa Tiggeman, and Katy Vargas will be featured).

3:00 p.m. Liturgy: we will pray for past CCVI Spirit Award Honorees and acknowledge in a special way the 2008 Honoree. After the Liturgy, the CCVI Spirit Award will be presented.

7:00 p.m. Pierre Lecture will be delivered by Dr. Jeannine Hill-Fletcher.
