What's the Word?

STUDENT CENTER AND LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

VOL. 4, ISSUE 6

OCTOBER 9, 2009

Stay tuned to the Word every Friday for an updated list of important dates and fun-filled events, and be sure to mark your calendars!

Around the Alamo City:

The Art of Elizabeth Elequin, 9/12 to 10/12

Local artist Elizabeth Elequin has been selected as St. Phillip's College's featured artist for this year's Hispanic Heritage Month celebration. Her work can be found in the Kathryn Morgan Gallery, located in the college's Watson Fine Arts Center. The exhibit is open to the public and free of charge.

Dance to a Latin Beat, 10/12

In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, Delta Xi Nu Sorority and La Unidad Latina: Lambda Upsilon Lambda Fraternity will be presenting a cultural display focused on Argentina. Look for them in the Circle from 2 to 4 p.m. to learn about this South American country and be treated to snacks and even lessons on Latin styles of dance.

UIW Heritage Day, 10/14

Heritage Day is a special daylong event in which UIW celebrates and honors its rich history. Take this opportunity to delve into the university's roots - how it was founded, the bond it has forged with Christus Santa Rosa, and what UIW's presence and contributions have done for the San Antonio community.

UIW Intramurals: Tennis REC Night, 10/15

If interested in tennis, head over to the UIW Mabry Tennis Center at 5 p.m. to learn about the intramurals' tennis team.

Did you know...?

UIW was founded in 1881 and, since then, has grown to be the largest Catholic university in Texas to date.

SPOTLIGHT

To the Victors Go the Spoils

On Oct. 8, the SCLA hosted a pool tournament. The first-place winner was Stephen Tony, who walked away with a $15 gift card for Best Buy.

Second- and third-place winners George De Rosa and Ryan Martin won $10 and $5 gift cards for Best Buy, respectively.

The SCLA's next tournament will be a Madden tournament on Oct. 29. Stop by the Student Center desk in Marian Hall to sign up or to find out more information.

Here Comes the Bride...

If you missed it last week, the UIW Department of Theatre Arts' rendition of Stephen Massicotte's romantic play Mary's Wedding continues until Oct. 11.

Call (210) 829-3200 or visit www.uiw.edu/theatre for tickets and show times. Catch this production before the curtain closes!
