September 8-10
No Phone Zone
Finnigans
9am - 2pm
Your friends can wait, make a new one!
U are... I am... We are...
Cardinal Courtyard
Three large boards will be set up for students to express
"who U are...", "who I am...", "who We are...

Tuesday, September 8
Civility March
Dubuis Lawn
11am - 2pm
Students will march around the library and stop at four stations to contemplate different perspectives about respect. Students will receive a t-shirt once they complete the walk.

Wednesday, September 9
"What would you do?"
Library Auditorium
4pm - 5pm
You’ve seen the show, now answer the question “What Would You Do?” in this friendly and engaging discussion that will challenge your views and perceptions of our community. Hosted by Monica Solis - Hoefl.

Thursday, September 10
A Conversation on Civility
Library Auditorium
4pm - 6pm
Red, yellow, black, and white, male, female... we’re all alike. Our panel will provide perspectives on gender, race, ethnic and religious similarities and differences.

Brought to you by Campus Life and Ettling Center for Civic Leadership
#UWCIVILITY