

UNIVERSITY OF THE INCARNATE WORD[®]

TITLE IX

A Parent's Guide to Title IX

Title IX

Requires UIW to prevent and respond to discrimination on the basis of sex in all programs and activities.

This Includes:

- Sex-Based Discrimination
- Sex-Based Harassment
- Equity in Athletics

What is Prohibited Conduct?

Discrimination

- Sex Characteristics
- Sex Stereotypes
- Gender Identity
- Sexual Orientation
- Pregnancy and Related Conditions

Sex-Based Harassment

- Sexual Harassment
- Sexual Assault
- Stalking
- Dating Violence
- Domestic Violence

For more information, go to: www.uiw.edu/titleix

If These Things Happen...

- Students have the right to report the incident and receive a prompt, equitable resolution.
- Students have the right to report to law enforcement, as applicable.
 - This includes going to a hospital for treatment and collecting evidence, if needed.
- Students have the right to request and receive supportive measures.

What You Need to Know

- All Employees of the University are considered Mandatory Reporters.
- We have 3 Confidential Reporting Locations:
 - Behavioral Health (Counseling)
 - Health Services
 - Mission & Ministry
- Mandatory Training is required of all freshman and incoming transfer students.

@UIWTitleIX

Questions?

Matthew Carpenter
Director of Title IX

Office Location: Admin. Bldg.,
Room 62

Phone: 210-283-6449
titleix@uiwtx.edu