SWING-IN

AUCTION PARTY AND GOLF TOURNAMENT

We are thrilled to invite you to partner with us for the University of the Incarnate Word's 48th annual Swing-In Auction Party and Golf Tournament! Hosted by the Development Board and Alumni Board, this cherished event brings together community leaders, alumni, and friends to raise vital scholarship funds for our students.

Thanks to the generosity of supporters like you, our 2024 Swing-In event raised over $341,000—a testament to the power of community in advancing our Mission. These funds directly benefit our students, enabling them to grow into compassionate, enlightened citizens with hearts dedicated to service and leadership.

As you consider your philanthropic priorities for 2025, we invite you to become a valued sponsor for this year's Swing-In. Your sponsorship not only supports a meaningful cause but also allows you to enjoy a lively event among peers and gain visibility for your company within the UIW community.

Enclosed, you'll find more information about sponsorship opportunities for Swing-In 2025. Please take a moment to review these materials, and we hope you'll join us in making this event a success. Your support will make a direct impact on our students and our UIW family.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to give back and invest in the next generation of leaders. We look forward to partnering with you!

ABOUT UIW

With over 140 years of tradition, the University of the Incarnate Word in San Antonio, Texas is committed to educational excellence in a context of faith in Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Word of God. UIW is the largest Catholic university in Texas and the fourth largest private university in Texas. With a beautiful main campus in San Antonio, UIW has locations throughout the city, and South and Central Texas as well as two campuses in Mexico and a European Study Center in Strasbourg, France. In 2019, UIW acquired the 9-story, 380,000 square foot landmark property at 4119 Broadway, directly across the street from main campus, expanding the university's footprint by 20%. The property has been named Founders Hall. UIW was founded by and is a sponsored ministry of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word.

UIW is committed to shaping good minds of strong character that will expand our world. At the core of UIW's Mission is a commitment to social justice and community service. With a curriculum designed to broaden student's understanding of the needs of the world, men and women learn to become concerned and enlightened citizens, using their skills for a meaningful impact within the local and global community. Through programs offered at the undergraduate, graduate and doctoral levels through 11 schools and colleges, students can positively influence countless industries and fields of study. In addition, UIW is committed to helping every student graduate with the lowest possible debt and secure a career that lifts their lives, their families and their communities.

As a Hispanic-Serving Institution and Yellow Ribbon School, UIW proudly welcomes students of all backgrounds and supports them throughout their academic journeys.

UIW is the only Catholic NCAA Division 1 athletics program in the South, and counts 14 sports and 23 men's and women's teams. As a proud member of the Southland Conference, UIW teams model ethical sportsmanship and exemplary athleticism.

Our richness of tradition, strong bonds and storied history have given rise to a proud alumni base of more than 40,000 men and women across the world. Graduates go on to live the UIW Mission in their field, displaying exemplary work in arts, civic service and professional accomplishments.
